

I am writing to say thanks for your advice on the 14-step programme and to tell you that they worked for me too...

I went to New York to cover an event with Bermudians at the Apollo and I met him at the hotel that I was staying at. It was quite unexpected and unusual to meet a kindred spirit, my soul mate... I returned from the US last Thursday and every day we get better and better... Now we are deciding whether I will go up in December or whether he will come to Bermuda...

The universe couldn't have provided a more perfect match for both of us.
