

METROPOLITAN POLICE – DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

ARISE has trained the following police officers as Certified Life Skills Instructors. We have also provided all Life Skills Curricula for use by the officers in DC schools for the past three years.

Officer Ingrid Dixon, through her love and concern for inner city youth introduced the ARISE–Metropolitan Police partnership in over 30 schools in the District. Positively impacting hundreds perhaps thousands of disadvantaged youth. She provided children with anger management, gun safety, drug, bully avoidance lessons and more. These youth can now survive and succeed in what is often a hostile environment. In addition Officer Dixon enlisted the following Metropolitan Police Officers into this wonderful effort.
