

If The Salvation Army doesn't teach them, who will?

ARISE offers structured social-skills lessons for at-risk youth, pre-K through teens.

Easy to grasp, this material is perfect for those with reading and comprehension deficits, with lessons on anger management, substance abuse, personal health, parenting, fatherhood, and much more.

These are subjects that children from dysfunctional or homeless families will rarely learn on their own.

Perfect for:

- Corps & social service programs
- Shelters
- Residential youth homes
- Before/after school
- Life-skills programs
- Summer camps
- Parenting groups
- Health/safety education sessions (all areas of programming)

Positive and appropriate training developed specifically for those working with disadvantaged populations
